

340 3234. 35-52

140,000 lbs. of goods.

(3) The 1st SS was reflected by more concentration of troops and additional weapons in Havana, and the barricading of the entrance to the city of the United States building.

(4) There have been no meaningful moves of Cuban forces out of Guantanamo Bay.

b. MILITARY

(1) The Soviet Government cancelled all military leaves and held up the release of overdue military personnel, rocket, anti-aircraft and submarine units to maintain the combat readiness of the armed forces.

(2) Soviet submarines are being sent to the Atlantic. Three units were detected and were identified as being a ZULU class. Their destination is believed to be to contest the U.S. blockade.

(3) At the UN Security Council, the Soviet Union declared Soviet shipping would not be searched and the U.S. declared it would not accept UN observers on the ships.

2. (15) OPERATIONS

a. CONARC was directed to coordinate the deployment requirements for the 3rd BAKK Bn, 15th Arty, Ft Lewis, Wash with CONAD and ARMBSCOM and to be prepared to move the battalion upon ARMBSCOM request.
